

Reports of the Bishop & Staff: Report of the Interim Bishop:

Grace and Peace be with you... A report from your Interim Bishop.

Do you remember what you were doing in August of 2024? I was in my kitchen canning tomato juice when a call came on my cell phone. The name on the screen was "Bishop Eaton." Wow, how nice that the Presiding Bishop is calling me. Ah..., why is the Presiding Bishop calling me? And so, our journey together began.

Shortly after that phone call, Vice President Ann Ferry presented my name to the synod council as Bishop Eaton's recommendation to serve as Interim Bishop for the Allegheny Synod. Their vote was yes, and I joined the council briefly for their September 2024 meeting where we discussed the work ahead of us, and I started serving in October. It was during that September meeting that the joint decision was made to postpone our 2025 Synod Assembly until the fall of the year. The reason behind this decision came from a conversation that raised the need for a time of healing and reconciliation to take place across the synod, along with time to properly prepare for the election of a new bishop to serve the Allegheny Synod.

To say that the synod was in transition when I arrived, is putting it lightly. Having just moved into the Hollidaysburg Lutheran Home, the synod office setting was new and still in the process of settling in. Michelle was still trying to figure out where to put things, while continuing to clear out the old office. Pr. Kevin Shock, as Assistant to the Bishop, had more leadership responsibilities placed upon him. Sue Ellen Spotts, our Director for Evangelical Mission, was fully engaged in a new conversation with ten congregations in the Clearfield Conference as they discerned how they might do ministry together. Pr. John Kratz, Director for the Go Tell It IN The Mountain initiative, had just moved into the synod office to begin his role. And then I walked in, a new face, a new voice, and a new style of leadership.

I realize that annual reports, such as this one, typically list the year of events since the previous synod assembly. Allow me to skip that formality and simply say this: Over the past year this synod has graciously been in conversation and in discernment to prepare for the future of this synod, and I am grateful for the willingness from so many to do this together.

First step was to establish a Transition Team to guide the processes of healing and preparing for a bishop's election. In January, all rostered leaders of the synod gathered for a day of conversation at Camp Sequanota. The importance of collegiality was raised, ideas were shared and recorded, fellowship was enjoyed, and we worshiped together. In the spring months, all six of our conferences met to discuss the needs of the synod and the role and expectations of a bishop who would serve this synod. Again, information about the synod was provided, ideas were shared and recorded, and we celebrated that more folks were in attendance for these gatherings than typically in the past. People were showing up! And people were engaged.

Since then, so many more conversations have taken place between synod council, conference deans, and synod staff. We've worked on reconnecting and rebuilding relationships across the synod territory. We've revisited the structure of our committees and are working on reactivating ministries of this synod. We've looked for better ways to connect, communicate, and serve folks across the synod. We've added events to the calendar to empower preaching, empower leadership, and strengthen our relationship with God, with each other, and our communities. We've done this work together, the synod as a whole.

Now, there have been struggles along the way, disappointments, and challenging conversations. Things like that will always exist in ministry. But we cannot allow those things to weigh us down to the point where we forget to focus on how and where God is leading us in service to the gospel of Jesus Christ. We must remember that God, our loving God, is a God of abundance who provides us with all that is needed to answer the call to discipleship. Look around and see God's abundance. You'll find it in the face of a sister or brother in Christ and in the communities in which we live.

As I look around this synod, I see great potential, I truly do. Sometimes, all it takes is a word of encouragement, an invitation, a little hospitality, and a smile. It is about our relationships with each other and fostering the positive rather than the negative. It is about being there for each other, showing up for the fun and fellowship, as well as the hard work. It is about living Christ-like in what we say and what we do. I pray that you also see the potential around you and the potential of the ministries we share in this synod and beyond.

I give thanks to God for that phone call from Bishop Eaton. I give thanks to the members of synod council for placing their trust and faith in me. I give thanks for the supportive and gifted synod staff with whom I've had the pleasure of serving. I give thanks for the colleagues and leaders across this synod who have extended their welcome to me and showed up when asked. And I give thanks for Camp Sequanota, the place where I heard the call to ministry and where room #12 has provided a place to lay my head while I travel through the hills and valleys of the synod's territory. It has been my humble honor to "come back home" and serve this beautifully rural, down home and loving Allegheny Synod.

Shalom
Bishop Barb Collins

Report of the Assistant to the Bishop:

I want to begin with a word of thanks to my colleagues. Michelle's steady presence in the Office of the Bishop has brought an institutional knowledge that is necessary in a time of transition. Sue Ellen has taken the lead in facilitating congregations who are discerning their future and the possibility of cooperative ministry. John's leadership has both promoted the gift of lay worship leaders to our ministry and established high standards and consistency in the program. Bishop Collins has taught us the importance of rebuilding relationship and exhibited faithful presence in being an agent of healing and in uniting us in common mission. I am grateful for each of them and the stability they have brought to the Office during this transition, even as we have worked to build ministry in the Allegheny Synod.

I confess that I am weary of transition. From splitting DEM and Assistant duties to moving to a full-time Assistant to the resignation of a Bishop and the workload that came to my desk, each year of my ministry in this Office has come with new responsibilities and challenges. In this past year I have struggled with my sense of call to this Office, and there have even been times when I have struggled with my sense of call to the church in general. Yet I have witnessed signs of hope and new life over the last six months. Relationships are being rebuilt; people are taking more ownership in ministry and showing more interest in living as disciples of Jesus. Although many days the weariness still creeps in, I am beginning to feel more hopeful about our ministry and life together than I previously have in this Office.

While this past year has mostly been filled with day-to-day administrative tasks in this Office there has been movement in three major areas.

First, the Candidacy Committee has engaged in much work to build up that ministry in our Synod. I have worked with the committee chairperson, the Rev. Sharon Erb, along with Bp. Collins, our ELCA regional candidacy manager, and seminary representatives to ensure that we are serving our candidates as best we can. As of the writing of this report, we have two candidates who have been approved for ordination and are awaiting calls, four candidates who are at various stages of formation, and two people who have begun seminary and are preparing to be entranced into the process. This formation work takes a fair amount of time and energy and a large amount of paperwork, but it is worth the effort to raise up well-formed leaders for the church from our Synod.

Second, I have worked with several congregations, councils, and call committees who are at various stages of transition in their ministry. Some are beginning the process to call new pastors, and some have been in the process for years now. The landscape of mobility in the church is completely different than it was 5 years ago. There are fewer candidates and fewer people looking to move between synods, but we are finding ways together to uphold the ministries that are happening throughout our Synod.

Report of the Assistant to the Bishop (continued):

Finally, we are nearing the end of a period, I pray, of congregations disaffiliating from the ELCA. During my time in this Office, I have in varying degrees been involved with eight different congregations who were exploring disaffiliation. A couple of those congregations had realized that their affiliation with the Allegheny Synod was no longer fitting with their ministries and were kind and cordial throughout the process. Most others were not. Vulnerable congregations are susceptible to propaganda from other church bodies and are quick to believe divisive rhetoric in the political and church worlds. Not only did I find it necessary to learn much more about our governing documents and the work of Churchwide committees, but I also needed to learn the false information that was being spread mostly by people affiliated with other Lutheran church bodies. I learned to be factual with my presentations, especially as people tend to believe what they want to believe, and I learned that how we share information in relationship with one another is more important than what information we are sharing. Many of those congregations chose to disaffiliate. Although doing so is probably better for them and for us, it does not come without pain. For the congregations who have stayed, they will spend significant time healing from the division and hurt that infiltrated them. Join me in prayer for all these congregations and for an end to the division that has poisoned the church and distracted us from our mission.

It helps me to begin with gratitude in this report to remember why I have been called to serve here and the wonderful servants with whom I serve. It is easy for me to focus on the difficulties of ministry and administration in my role, but I know that God is calling us toward a better future. May it be so among us.

In the peace of Christ, The Rev. Kevin T. Shock Assistant to the Bishop

Report of the Director of Evangelical Mission:

In my report for last year's assembly, I admitted that what excites me as your DEM is exploring with you the ways you live into your calling as Christ's people to share Christ's love in the world, even as we face the challenges of changes in our communities and congregations. Throughout this year, in conversations at Bishop's Convocation, the rostered leaders gathering, and Tend Festival you shared what this looks like day to day, week to week; where you feel uplifted, where you need support.

I have also had the opportunity to work alongside you as you explore new partnerships and new leadership possibilities in Clearfield Conference and with Laurel Mountain Lutherans. Some of the congregations of the Nittany Conference recently participated in a mission workshop to share their mission and consider ways to support or collaborate with each other. In response to Christ's call to care for "the least of these," many of you reach out to your neighbors through feeding ministries. To coordinate and support each other in this mission, we have created as Synod Hunger Team. You can read more about this, including how to get involved, in its own report in the assembly materials.

As you continue to explore how to live out your baptism as individuals and congregations, I continue to explore with colleagues across the ELCA (especially those who also serve rural and small town congregations) how to adapt to the changes and challenges of being Church today.

Together we are finding new paths to faithfulness as God's people, to bringing love and grace to a world in need of healing and hope. As we continue this exploration, I repeat the questions and suggestions I posed in a recent article in The Lutheran Letter:

What are the measures you are using for vitality in your congregation? How are you taking the grace of God into your community in new ways, to reach people who need to experience it? I'd like to suggest that, when you discuss the vitality of your congregation, try doing the following:

- Tell stories, not just stats where have you been sharing Christ's love in the world?
- Track spiritual growth, not just attendance how are the members of your congregation growing in their faith; how are you studying and praying together?
- Focus on community engagement cultivate relationships in your ministries instead of counting heads.
- Practice experimental faithfulness celebrate trying new ways of reaching out, not just what succeeds.

Consider that we do not know the number of people Jesus reached in his ministry. What we know are the stories of how people were healed, their lives transformed. I challenge you to start your meetings and other gatherings with stories of where you and others are experiencing the love of Christ. Use that collection of stories to measure how the church is growing in your community.

And, if you would like a partner in this exploration, please reach out. I am ready to join you, to support you in your journey.

In Christ, Sue Ellen

Report of the Director of the Go Tell It In the Mountains Initiative:

What is the "Go Tell It IN the Mountains Initiative"?

The Allegheny, Northwest Pennsylvania and Upper Susquehanna Synods of the ELCA were blessed to receive a grant in 2024 from the Lilly Endowment. This 1.25-million-dollar grant formed our tri-synod Initiative called Go Tell It IN the Mountains. These grant funds are to be used in full by December 31st, 2029.

There are 3 primary goals of the Go Tell It Initiative. First is that we want to ensure that our present preachers, both clergy and lay, are provided best options to aid them in becoming compelling preachers. Regularly scheduled training events, on site in our region and via zoom, help make this a reality.

Second, we want to recruit and train additional preachers by resourcing people called to preach with the best tools and training available. If you, or anyone you know, are sensing a call to preach, please contact the Synod O2ice so that we may send you full information as to the next steps.

Third, we want to assist every person worshipping in our congregations to hear and respond to the Gospel message in their daily lives. A great resource to use as a personal or group study is "I Will" by Thom Rainer and Will Willimon's book "Listeners Dare."

The Go Tell It IN the Mountains Initiative is driven by people volunteering their time and talents to reach the desired goals. The whole of the Initiative is overseen by the Steering Committee which is chaired by Bishop Emeritus Greg Pile along with volunteer representatives from each Synod and numerous task forces. Pastor Schul serves on the Steering Committee.

Rev. John Kratz was hired by the Steering Committee, and he began his role on September 1, 2024, as the Director of the Initiative. His olice is located within the Allegheny Synod olice area.

Through the training options and our intentional support of one another we hope that compelling preaching will be our standard of excellence in preaching.

Events Sponsored by the Go Tell It In the Mountains Initiative include:

Small Group Preachers Training Cohorts

Large Group Preachers Training Cohort

Authorized Lay Worship Leaders Fellowship Meetings: October 26th and January 25th

Preachers Training Event: November 8th with Bishop Craig Satterlee

Mission Insite Demographic Studies for EACH congregation

Assistance to purchase books of Listeners Dare by Will Willimon or I Will by Thom Rainer for church council studies

Digital Library of Preachers tools through Go Tell It IN the Mountains website

Reports of Synod Council: Report of the Vice President, Ann Ferry:

A year of transition. A year of rejuvenating the caring spirit of the Allegheny Synod. A year of getting to know each other and sharing our hopes and dreams of how to serve Jesus and our neighbors!

We bid former Bishop Lebo farewell as she began the next part of her ministry. We have welcomed retired Bishop Barbara Collins back to our synod. (Spoiler alert! She grew up in Hollidaysburg). Thank you to Bishop Eaton for your wisdom of sending Bishop Barb and her gifts to us!

The Synod Council has been working alongside Bishop Barb, Assistant to the Bishop Kevin Shock and DEM SueEllen Spotts to reconnect all of us to our mission. Our emphasis has been on rebuilding relationships. Between clergy, between clergy and lay people, between people in the conferences and pews.

We have had two multi day rostered leader gatherings to talk and dream and look forward to what we can do together. Each conference has met twice to connect the members of the Synod Office with the laity. All of this is so we can see and hear what is happening and how we can all work together.

Your synod council has worked hard at visioning and still doing the work of the ELCA and our synod. A rather thankless job, but I am grateful to each of you for putting in the work! So much great discussion that n e e d e d to b e shared. S o m u c h sharing of our dreams and fears.

I am so very grateful that I could attend the churchwide assembly in Phoenix in July. (So hot. You cannot tell me dry heat is not hot..)

Report of the Secretary:

Blessings and peace to you, my siblings in Christ,

In my first year of serving as the Synod Council Secretary, I have learned much and know there is still more to learn. Taking minutes and recording the actions of the council are important responsibilities, but I have also come to see that this role is about more than documentation. It is about helping ensure that the work of the Synod Council is carried out with accountability, transparency, and faithfulness to our shared mission in Christ.

This past year, the council has prayerfully considered matters such as visioning the roles and responsibilities needed for the Office of the Bishop, particularly as we prepare for the call and election of a new Synodical Bishop. We have also updated accounting titles and descriptions to align with the Synod's needs and goals, and we transitioned our insurance coverage to Brotherhood Mutual. Each of these decisions reflects our desire to be good stewards of the resources and opportunities God has entrusted to us.

I am grateful for the partnership of Interim Bishop Barbara Collins, the synod staff, and my fellow council members. Their wisdom, encouragement, and commitment to the gospel make this work a joy. I also thank you, the members of the assembly, for entrusting me with this role and for your ongoing prayers and support.

It is an honor to serve Christ's church in this way. May the Holy Spirit continue to guide us as we seek to be the body of Christ together for the sake of the world.

In Christ, Rev. Rebecca Horn Secretary, Allegheny Synod Council Pastor, St. Luke Lutheran Church, Centre Hall, PA

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION FOR SYNODS
AS APPROVED BY THE 2025 CHURCHWIDE ASSEMBLY

Official Notice of Certification of Required Provisions and Notice of Recommended Provisions

Prepared by the Office of the Secretary Evangelical Lutheran Church in America August 2025

Following is official notification of amendments to the Constitution for Synods that were approved by the 2025 Churchwide Assembly. Additions are underlined; deletions are struck through; all changes are highlighted.

Provisions within the Constitution for Synods are of two types:

- Required Provisions: Sections of the Constitution for Synods marked by a dagger [†] are required provisions. These sections, including constitutional provisions and bylaws, must be used without alteration or amendment of the text in any manner (i.e., neither additions nor deletions are permissible). In accordance with provision †S18.11., amendments to required provisions in the Constitution for Synods passed by the Churchwide Assembly are automatically incorporated into the constitutions of individual synods upon formal certification by the secretary of this church.
- Non-Required Provisions: Sections of the Constitution for Synods not marked by a dagger are non-required provisions. These provisions represent wording recommended by the Churchwide Assembly. In accordance with provision †S18.12., whenever the secretary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America officially informs synods that the Churchwide Assembly has amended non-required provisions within the Constitution for Synods, the synod constitution may be amended to reflect any such amendment by a majority vote at any subsequent meeting of the Synod Assembly. An amendment that is identical to a provision of the Constitution for Synods shall be deemed to have been ratified upon its adoption by the synod; presentation at a prior Synod Assembly is not required in the case of recommended provisions. The Church Council, through the secretary of this church, shall be given prompt notification of any changes to the synod constitution.

For convenience, in this document the amendments to the Constitution for Synods approved by the 2025 Churchwide Assembly are organized into four sections:

- 1. Amendments to Required Provisions. These provisions are presented in Section 1, and are to be entered into your synod's constitution for immediate effect.
- 2. The 2025 Churchwide Assembly approved the redesignation of one provision from non-required to required. This provision is presented in Section 2. It must now be entered into each synod's constitution. If it already is part of a synod's constitution, it must now be marked as "required."
- 3. The 2025 Churchwide Assembly approved the redesignation of three provisions from required to non-required. These provisions are presented in Section 3. If a synod desires to eliminate these provisions, there must be a majority vote by the synod assembly to amend the synod's constitution. Note also that there is a wording change to one of these provisions. If the synod maintains this provision, the wording change may be incorporated, and would require a majority vote.
- 4. Amendments to Non-Required Provisions. These provisions are presented in Section 4.

The Office of the Secretary would like to express gratitude for your faithful attention to your synod's constitution!

Go Tell It In the Mountains Report - Bishop Emeritus Gregory Pile

In September 2023, Lilly Endowment approved 81 grants to organizations across the United States through its Compelling Preaching Initiative. The aim of the initiative is to help Christian pastors strengthen their preaching so they can better inspire, encourage and guide people to live their faith more fully.

Ranging from $275,400 to $1.25 million, the grants will fund programs at a variety of organizations, including congregations, theological schools, faith-affiliated colleges and universities and media organizations, church resourcing organizations, denominational judicatories, parachurch organizations and other church networks. These organizations reflect diverse Christian communities, including Anabaptist, Black Church, Catholic, Evangelical, Orthodox Christian, Pentecostal and Protestant traditions.

Minutes of the 36th Assembly of the Allegheny Synod: (continued)

The Lilly Endowment Compelling Preaching Initiative has provided an exciting opportunity for 3 Pennsylvania Appalachian Lutheran synods to turn dreams into action. The Allegheny Synod, the Northwestern PA Synod & the Upper Susquehanna Synod are excited to be in partnership for this grant.

We anticipate impacting three important goal areas that will guide the key activities of our project:

- 1) Ordained and lay preachers will be equipped to utilize traditional and nontraditional techniques including different modes of delivery to develop skills and practices that will make the gospel message more compelling.
- 2) Aspiring preachers will be recruited and engaged in a variety of compelling preaching strategies that educate, empower, and support competency in their ministry.
- 3) Existing members of congregations and new community audiences within our three Lutheran partner synods will respond to compelling preaching opportunities and content by integrating the gospel message into their attitudes, actions and ministries in daily life.

We are launching the Go Tell It In The Mountains initiative today... enhancing the proclamation of Jesus in each of our 283 congregations.

Bishop Paula Lebo declared the 36th Allegheny Synod Assembly closed at 3:30PM

Report of the Treasurer:

I have completed my second year as your treasurer! It has been a continual learning experience, and an enlightening one. I am so happy to have met so many people along this journey, for which I am forever grateful. I would like to sincerely thank the members of the Finance Committee who have been such a wealth of advice and assistance. They include: Tim Albright, Rev. Traci Marriott, Andrea Paul, Pastor Scott Schul and much help from Bishop Barbara, Pastor Kevin and Michelle.

Our income for fiscal 2024/2025 ended at $251,242.50. After accounting for unrealized loss on investments, the more realistic income is $196,647.22. This reflects our investment income of $229,662.61. As we prepared your 2026/2027 budget, we anticipate this trend to continue. The investment portfolio was reworked to eliminate most risk to income. I worked with our investment professional and we are now in a conservative investment strategy. The income for 2024/2025 was approximately $100,000 over the previous year while the expenses were a mere $10,000 higher than the previous year. I call this year a success!!

I will allow Pastor John to give his report of Go Tell It In the Mountain. However I will simply say that we initially received a grant for $1,250,000 and the balance at the fiscal year ending January was $1,247,776.61. The 2024/2025 expenses were $94,033.76.

I am very pleased to report that our Mission Support has shown an increase from the previous year. Year ending January 2024 was $594,430.50 and year ending January 2025 was $647,402.39. That is an increase of $52,971.89 or approximately 1% which hopefully will replace a recent trend of a negative amount for Mission Support.

The committee also evaluated and recommended to Council that we change our insurance company this year. Council approved that recommendation and we are now insured by Brotherhood Mutual with additional coverages and similar premium.

The Budget for fiscal years 2026/2027 is attached and awaiting your approval. The committee used a few assumptions in the process. Including, a new Bishop hire with 15 years of ordination and a 3% salary increase. That same 3% salary increase is for all other staff as well. Also, a net expense for the Synod Assembly and Youth events of $1,000 for each. The Compensation Manual is also awaiting your approval.

With God's help I will continue to work for our Synod, Paula Nihoff Allegheny Synod Treasurer

2026 Compensations and Benefits Manual:

2026 Compensation and Benefits Manual

A Tool for Ministry Budgeting in the Allegheny Synod, ELCA

This manual is intended as a tool for ministry sites and their ministers of Word and Sacrament or ministers of Word and Service to mutually plan and budget for the minister's compensation and benefits.

Predominantly we think of ministry in terms of a minister's efforts for members of the ministry on behalf of Jesus Christ. In the same way, the ministry of the laity includes care of the minister and the minister's family on behalf of Jesus Christ.

In many ministry settings, a specific team is tasked with primary concern for care of the minister and their family. One of the key tasks of such a team is to discuss annually with the minister a fair and equitable compensation package. Since the minister depends on the ministry employer to make ample provision for their financial needs, the minister should have the opportunity to discuss those needs in an open and supportive forum. This team is in a position to provide such a forum. The team can gather data from the minister about their financial needs and subsequently make recommendations to the Finance Committee, Council or Board, and/or Congregation for fair and equitable compensation.

There are reasons for the varieties of financial compensation packages within this Synod and the ELCA. Some ministries have full-time ministers while others have less than full-time ministerial service. Some have multiple ministers on staff. Some cooperatives have one minister serving multiple locations. Some ministers have additional education, training, or work experience prior to entering the ministry that benefits their ministry. It is the intention of the Synod to affirm the reality of different ministry arrangements while at the same time ensuring adequate and fair compensation.

This document attempts to provide flexibility in determining base salary by only specifying minimum amounts, in negotiating housing arrangements, and in providing components for some other benefits. Primary in all that is recommended here is the need for the minister and team members to discuss openly and honestly the subject of money and the minister's responsibilities and needs.

This document is not intended to serve as financial or tax advice. Ministry employers are responsible for following legal employment practices regarding compensation and taxation. Ministers are strongly encouraged to employ a qualified tax accountant and/or financial advisor to review their compensation and ensure compliance with tax codes.

A. Annual Base Salary Compensation

Listed below are recommended minimum guidelines for use in developing the compensation package for Ministers of Word and Sacrament and Ministers of Word and Service. Each ministry setting requires unique responsibilities; adequate compensation is related but not limited to the expectations of the minister and the ministry they are serving. Ministry employers may choose to compensate ministers beyond the minimum guidelines for additional degrees, certifications, or years of other relevant professional experience.

- 1) Each year the Synod Finance Committee reviews current economic indicators to determine an appropriate starting salary. Starting salary for ministers ordained in 2026 increased 3% from 2025.
- 2) Salary is increased for each year of experience by $500.

To Calculate years of experience,	subtract the minister's	year of ordination from 2026.

B. Housing & Furnishing Allowance

A minister whose compensation does not include a parsonage may designate as housing allowance an amount of compensation which is excluded from their Federal taxable income up to the fair rental value of a furnished home plus utilities to the extent that the allowance is actually expended for housing. Qualifying Housing Allowance expenses include rent payments, principal and interest payments on mortgages, taxes, utilities, maintenance, insurance, furnishing, and landscaping. The IRS provides information on housing allowance:

https://www.irs.gov/faqs/interest-dividends-other-types-of-income/ministers-compensation-housing-allowance/ministers-compensation-housing-allowance

For the purpose of including a housing allowance in calculating the Total Defined Compensation, Portico will add 30% to Base Salary for a minister whose compensation includes a parsonage.

A minister may receive a Furnishing Allowance. The Furnishing Allowance is excluded from Federal Income Tax to the extent that the allowance is actually expended for furnishing; however, the amount used is subject to Social Security Tax. The Furnishing Allowance is paid directly to the minister and is in addition to any maintenance and repair costs paid directly or reimbursed by the ministry employer.

Congregations that provide a parsonage for the called rostered minister pay the parsonage's utilities in full each month. Utilities include electric, gas, oil, water, sewer, trash, internet, telephone (if a landline exists). If the rostered minister uses their personal cell phone for church business, a negotiated amount of reimbursement should be paid in addition to the parsonage utility costs. Billing for utilities for the parsonage are registered in the name of the congregation and directed to the congregation's treasurer.

C. Social Security Allowance

For Social Security purposes, ministers are taxed as if they are self-employed. The current combined Social Security and Medicare tax is 15.3%. The Synod policy requires the ministry site to assume at least 50% of the combined Social Security and Medicare tax that the minister is required to pay or an equivalent amount if the minister had previously opted out of Social Security.

To calculate the compensation subject to Social Security Tax, add the Base Salary (A), 30% of Base Salary for ministers with a parsonage only, Furnishing Allowance (B), and any other allowances paid directly to the minister, excluding reimbursed expenses.

E. Other Portico-ELCA Benefits Contribution

Portico Benefit Services, the nonprofit benefit ministry of the ELCA, provides the benefit program for rostered ministers, lay employees, and their families. Portico provides health, dental, prescription drug, retirement, disability, and group life insurance benefits in one bundled program.*This program is designed to address the needs of rostered ministers and provide seamless benefits during change of call, leave from call, and other events unique to ministry. A bundled approach helps ensure rostered ministers and lay employees are protected against significant financial loss from a variety of risks. Through Portico, ministries in this synod and across the country pool their collective purchasing power to provide benefits in a cost-effective manner. For more information, see the ELCA Philosophy of Benefits at PorticoBenefits.org/philosophy.

Congregations and plan members share the cost of benefits. Congregations are expected to support the well-being of their covered plan members by paying 100% of the cost of non-elective benefits. Plan members are expected to participate in the cost of utilizing the benefits (e.g., deductibles, coinsurance, and copays).

*A plan member may waive health coverage if they have access to valid medical insurance coverage through their spouse or another employer.

Current contribution rates for benefits are available at EmployerLink.PorticoBenefits.org or from calling Portico at 800.352.2876.

ELCA Survivor Benefit

Basic group life insurance is offered through Securian and is paid for by the congregation. Rostered ministers may pay for additional coverage through Securian or other supplemental insurance.

ELCA Disability Benefits

When approved, the ELCA disability trust provides monthly income, retirement plan contribution, and health coverage. There are two types of disability benefits: short term and long term. Short term (60 days) compensation and benefits are paid by the congregation. Long term (over 60 days) disability benefits are paid by the ELCA's disability trust.

ELCA Retirement

The ELCA maintains a defined contribution retirement plan for rostered ministers. The Allegheny Synod encourages congregations to contribute a minimum of 12% of the rostered minister's defined compensation to the retirement plan. Members in the plan can also contribute pre-tax contributions through payroll deduction.

ELCA Health Benefit

The ELCA's health benefit plans cover the following areas: medical, dental, prescription coverage, tax advantage accounts (Flexible Spending and Health Savings Accounts) and wellness support. The ELCA Church Council has approved a balance of cost-sharing between congregations and plan members. Portico offers a choice of ELCA-Primary health benefit options. Each fall, congregations should engage in conversation with their sponsored plan members to determine the option that best fits their needs, then make their selection during annual enrollment. In September 2025, the Allegheny Synod Council voted to recommend that congregations sponsor one of the two plans at the $2000 deductible range: Select Copay 2000 or Select HDHP 2000.

F. Housing Equity Allowance (For Ministers with a Parsonage Only)

When a parsonage is furnished as part of the minister's compensation, the minister does not have the opportunity to build equity as a homeowner. The ministry employer may compensate for this lack of equity with a Housing Equity Allowance. Recommended Housing Equity Allowance Provisions:

- 1. The Housing Equity Allowance equals 3% of the minister's Defined Compensation.
- 2. The ministry employer pays this amount in monthly installments to a depository agreed to by the ministry employer and the minister.
- 3. Use of the funds is limited to the provision of housing whenever it is needed, specifically at the time of retirement, disability, or death, or when a congregation disposes of its parsonage.
- 4. Provisions are to be made for changing the depository when required by relocation of the minister, provided that the original contractual limitations for the use of the funds are maintained.

To calculate the Housing Equity Allowance paid by the ministry employer, multiply the Defined Compensation (D1) x 3%.

D1. _____ x .03 = ____ (F) Housing Equity Allowance

Housing Equity Allowance F. $

Professional Expenses

The IRS has made it difficult to itemize and deduct professional expenses. Therefore, it is recommenced that the ministry employer reimburse professional expenses in full and budget accordingly for these anticipated costs, reviewing these allowances frequently. Professional expenses include:

- G. Synod Assembly and Conference Expenses
- H. Automobile Expenses
- I. Continuing Education, Book, Periodical, and Digital Resource Expenses
- J. Ministry-Related Business and Attire Expenses Page 8 of 20
- K. Leadership Development

Additional Professional Expenses unique to a ministry may be incurred and compensated.

G. Synod Assembly and Conference Expenses

All ministers are required to attend the annual Synod Assembly and Bishop's Convocation, for which the ministry employer is required to pay registration, lodging, and meals for the minister while attending these events. Further, ministers may be expected to attend other Synod conferences or trainings, and the ministry employer is expected to pay those registration fees and expenses as well. Expenses for Synod Assembly, Convocation, and other Synod conferences or trainings are to be covered in addition to Continuing Education expenses.

Typical expenses for Synod Assembly and Bishop's Convocation are $300 each ($600 total).

Ministers in the first three years of their first call after graduation/ordination are required to attend First Call Theological Education (FCTE). FCTE incurs a fee of $200/year for three years.

Synod Assembly	& Conference	Expenses	G.	$

H. Automobile Expenses

In most ministry settings, the minister will incur transportation costs that include fuel, repairs, insurance, tolls, etc. The IRS allows reimbursement of a specific amount per mile when a car is used for business purposes. American Automobile Association (AAA) and Department of Transportation studies indicate that the cost of operating automobiles is greater than the mileage reimbursement allowed by the IRS. The ministry employer should provide to the minister a travel allowance adequate to cover all costs. The Synod recommends three possible arrangements (in order of preference):

- 1. An employer-owned or leased car. The ministry employer owns or leases a car for the minister to use in the course of their duties; the employer pays the cost of fuel, maintenance, and repairs.
- 2. Reimbursement to the minister for actual miles driven. The employer pays the leader for the use of their car based on an agreed upon amount per mile and in accordance with IRS regulations. The IRS rate for 2025 is 70 cents per mile; this may change in 2026. Amounts up to the IRS rate are not taxable; any amount paid in excess of the IRS rate is taxable compensation.
- 3. Pay the leader a flat rate for transportation. Having budgeted an amount for travel, the ministry employer pays the minister a regular amount, regardless of the miles driven by the leader. A flat rate travel compensation is considered taxable income, so an additional 15%-20% should be added to the allowance to account for the additional tax obligation of the minister.

The IRS clarifies allowable mileage reimbursement guidelines: https://www.irs.gov/publications/p463
Some rostered ministers may work from home; it is the responsibility of the congregation's council to clearly state from where mileage is calculated for reimbursement. When an agreement is reached, it should be included on the Definitions for Compensation worksheet, Section C.

I. Continuing Education, Book, Periodical, and Digital Resource Expenses

In order to update their skills and strengthen their ministry, the ELCA expects ministers to participate in at least 50 contact hours of Continuing Education (Life-Long Learning/Professional Development) annually. Such activities are not vacations, and ministry employers shall provide both time and money to facilitate these learning opportunities. For the minister to keep abreast of developments in theology and ministry, expenses for books, periodicals, and digital resources are included with Continuing Education.

Like the Housing Equity Allowance, an account with a depository agreed to by the minister and the ministry employer should be established for Continuing Education. The Synod recommends the employer contribute at least $700 and the minister at least $300 annually. Two weeks study leave, or its equivalent, is to be provided over and above vacation.

J. Ministry Related Business and Attire Expenses

The IRS has made it difficult to itemize and deduct professional expenses. Therefore the Synod recommends the ministry employer reimburse in full professional expenses including, but not limited to, professional attire such as vestments and clerics, ministry use of personal technical resources (i.e. cell phone, computer), professional organization dues, and business entertainment.

Ministry Related Business and Attire Expense J. $

K. Leadership Development

Leadership Development is different than Continuing Education or vacation, which benefit the ministry but are for the minister's personal development, rest, and renewal. Leadership development benefits the ministry's well-being and growth. The Synod recommends that the ministry employer offer at least $500 for Leadership Development which may include retreats, resources, coaching, or other education for the minister's development and growth.

Vacation

Sabbath is a commandment of God; therefore weekly time off and annual vacation are necessary for the minister's personal physical, mental, and spiritual health as well as for their leadership by example. The Synod requires a minimum of four weeks annual vacation, which includes four Sundays, and a minimum of one day off each week. Coverage should be arranged so that the minister is not "on call" during scheduled vacation time. The ministry employer may grant additional vacation time based on the length of service in the ministry.

The 2026 rate for Sunday supply worship leadership will be $140 for one service, PLUS $50 for each additional service on the same day, PLUS mileage reimbursement at the 2026 IRS rate.

To budget for supply coverage of the minister's vacation, multiply the number of Sundays offered in vacation (minimum 4) x $140 (+$50 per additional service) + an estimate of mileage reimbursement.

Leave of Absence

A leave of absence should be negotiated between the minister and ministry employer (council or board) at least 14 days prior to the leave request. If emergency leave is required in which the 14 day notice is not possible, the Executive Committee may grate the leave with the approval of the full council or board.

Sick Leave

Rostered ministers and congregation employees shall receive ten (10) days of paid sick leave per year. Illness of longer than two (2) months should be referred to Portico Benefits. Sick leave may accrue up to a maximum of thirty (30) working days. The decision to grant additional paid sick leave is at the discretion of the congregation council.

Family Leave

In the event of an illness in the immediate family (spouse, children, parents, brother, sister, grandparent, grandchildren, mother-in-law, father-in-law, or legal guardian) that requires the rostered minister or employee's presence, accrued sick leave may be utilized for this purpose.

Maternity/Paternity/Adoptive Leave

Leaves under this section are for the purpose of issues related to parenting, and may only be taken after six (6) months of full-time employment. Rostered ministers and employees who will be absent due to maternity/ paternity/adoptive leave are requested to provide as much advance notice as possible. Eight (8) weeks of paid maternity/paternity/adoptive leave are available to a rostered minister or an employee following the birth of a child or an adoption of a child less than one year old. Such leave must be taken within fifteen (15) weeks of the birth or adoption. If medically necessary, additional time may be requested. Rostered ministers and employees desiring additional leave, either prior to or following the birth of their child or adoption of their child less than one year old, may use accrued vacation or sick time to supplement time off with the approval of the congregation council. The rostered minister or employee agrees to return to work for a minimum of six (6) months after taking leave.

Vacation

Rostered ministers are granted four (4) weeks of paid vacation time including four (4) Sundays each year as a minimum guideline. Rostered ministers should notify the congregation council at least thirty (30) days in advance of vacation and make arrangements for the proper pastoral coverage while out of town. Additional vacation time may be granted to rostered ministers by the congregation council. Unused vacation time will be paid to the rostered minister upon resignation of call or separation from call. Full benefits will be paid through the end of unused vacation time at time of resignation or separation. Congregational employees are granted paid vacation time according to congregational guidelines.

Compassionate and Emergency Leave

In the event of a death in a rostered minister or employee's immediate family (spouse, children, parents, brother, sister, grandparent, grandchildren, mother-in-law, father-in-law, or legal guardian) five (5) days paid leave will be granted to attend the funeral and to deal with family affairs. Additional time may be granted by the congregation council.

Jury Duty

This synod recognizes an employee's legal and civic duty to serve if called to jury duty or subpoenaed as a witness. A rostered minister or employee who is required to serve as such will be entitled to full pay and benefits during the period of such service. Rostered ministers and employees are required to report to work when not required to be present in court, and to call in daily to report their status on returning to work.

Leave Without Pay

Leave without pay may be granted to a rostered minister or employee, for personal reasons, after due consideration has been given to the work requirements of the congregation. Leave without pay may be granted for a period of up to two (2) months. Such leaves of absence are granted by the congregation council only in consultation with the bishop and the Synod Council. The congregation will hold a rostered minister or employee's position open for the leave period, while on an approved leave without pay. If the rostered minister or employee is unable to return to work at the conclusion of the leave period, their position may or may not continue to be held open. This decision will be made, on a case-by-case basis, by the bishop in consultation with the congregation council. If the individual has been on a leave without pay for medical reasons, a medical release from their physician to return to work must be submitted.

Disability Leave

This synod and its congregations are committed to accommodate qualified rostered ministers and employees with disabilities, to the extent it can do so without undue burden. If, for example, a qualified employee is temporarily disabled and provides the congregation a medical certification recommending leave, the congregation will provide unpaid leave as an accommodation to that employee if it can do so without undue burden. Requests for accommodation should be made in writing, and the rostered minister or employee will need to work with the bishop or his/her delegate to determine the appropriate accommodation and documentation needed. Longterm Disability claims are handled through Portico Benefit Services. See the Portico website for requirements for guidelines to apply. The ministry employer will pay full compensation for the eight week period until Portico Disability Benefits begin. Ministry employers may explore cost benefit of purchasing short-term disability insurance to cover that eight week period. The Office of the Bishop will work with the congregation council to secure pastoral coverage during the period of disability.

Military Leave

Rostered ministers and regular full-time and regular part-time employees who perform military service will be granted leaves of absence for such service in compliance with state and federal laws. For purposes of this handbook, military service in the performance of duty on a voluntary or involuntary basis in the U.S. Armed forces, the Reserves, or the National Guard under competent authority, and includes active duty for training, inactive duty training, and full-time National Guard duty. Vacation or accrued sick time is not to be used for this leave. Rostered ministers or employees who are called to military service will be paid during their leave at a rate of 50% of their normal wages and benefits will be paid in full. Rostered ministers are asked to notify the congregation council and bishop and submit copies of military orders as soon as they become aware of the military obligation. Employees are asked to notify the pastor and congregation council as soon as they become aware of the military obligation and submit copies of military orders. An employee's eligibility for reinstatement after completion of military service is determined in accordance with applicable federal and state laws.

Sabbatical Leave

In January 2004, the Synod Council approved the following Sabbatical Guidelines:

Vision: Throughout Holy Scripture, from Genesis' beginnings to Jesus' ministry and the church's witness, accounts of holy activity are clearly set apart by rest, quiet places, and time for restoration. God has given us, God's people, the Sabbath pattern as a time of renewal, a time to be reminded of whose we are and what we are called to do, a time of rest that refreshes us for life.

In the lives of ministers of the Allegheny Synod, time apart from the regular responsibilities of ministry benefit both the ministry setting and the minister. Over an extended period, a Sabbatical, rest separate from the immediate expectations of congregational ministry, can renew a congregation and refresh a leader's sense of call for ministry. As the minister is released from the regular responsibilities of the call, it does not mean that congregational life is suspended. In fact, many congregations report that the Sabbatical was a time for growth and renewal.

Each Sabbatical will be unique. Sabbatical is clearly permission for a minister to be blessed by time away. In the church, as we discuss Sabbaticals for ministers, the challenge is for us to pursue its meaning for each Christian community. These guidelines are intended to help congregations and ministers create a mutual plan of rest and renewal for ministry.

Purpose, Rationale, and Expectations

We are familiar with the Sabbath, the seventh day of creation, when God rested. The word "Sabbatical" is derived from Sabbath, and is defined as a time reserved for rest, research, renewal, enrichment, learning, spiritual growth, travel, and strengthening of ministry gifts. Sabbaticals provide opportunities to see new directions, renew relationships, to begin new pursuits. Nourishing one's soul and changing perspective requires a change in one's space and place. Jesus spent forty days in the wilderness, after which his ministry set off on a new course.

Preparation for a Sabbatical is important, and openness to the movement of God's Spirit in the life of people and minister is vital. A Sabbatical is arranged in consideration of the congregation's ministry. It can be expected that while a minister is on Sabbatical, congregational life —worship, education, outreach, evangelism, etc., will continue. Sabbatical leave is not a vacation, nor is it only continuing education. While life-long learning and continuing education are vital for all, and ministers are expected to participate in regular opportunities to grow and be strengthened, the Sabbatical is an enriching component of ministry, which may include particular continuing education opportunities, but most likely will encompass more. Necessarily, the plans for a Sabbatical will be mutually detailed well in advance of departure.

Many congregations reflect that while their minister was away they learned new things about themselves and the ministry they share with one another. Thus, renewal of God's people and minister occurs. Sabbaticals provide a means by which the congregation can minister to their leader. The Sabbatical may also bring into being a Sabbatical for the congregation, a time to rethink the "busyness" of congregational life, a time to reevaluate the congregation's relationship with God, a time for the Holy Spirit to lead their ministry in new ways. Most importantly, the congregation gains a minister who returns to God's calling with renewed vigor, insight, appreciation, and vision.

Ministers of the church in the Allegheny Synod need Sabbath time to break away from the stress and strain and the 24/7 nature of ministry. A Sabbatical gives a minister more than a time to study, learn, and rest. To keep the Sabbath is to renew one's trust in God to provide by abstaining from those activities that provide material resources. A Sabbatical provides ministers time to be nurtured by God, reflect on their relationship with God. A Sabbatical gives the minister an opportunity to reflect on God's call and discover the importance of who they are in the light of who God wants them to be.

Benefits of Sabbaticals

Sabbaticals provide a means for the congregation to gain new insight into mission and ministry and to minister to their called leader. A Sabbatical leave will benefit the congregation, the church leadership, and their shared ministry. A few of these benefits are listed below.

For the Ministry

An opportunity to show support for the minister and their family; a time to develop lay leadership by assuming some of the minister's responsibilities; an opportunity for learning new ideas to enhance their ministry; renewed congregational leadership; opportunities for spiritual growth; leadership stability, while not losing an effective and respected minister to burnout or a new call.

For the Ministry Leadership

A time to renew their energy and rediscover their zeal for ministry; an opportunity for learning new ideas to enhance their ministry; a time for prayer, rest, and renewing their relationship with God; a time to spend with family and friends to renew and strengthen relationships; an extended time for focused study and spiritual growth.

Mutual Benefits

Renewal of the covenant between the leader and the congregation; improved understanding of each other's perspective: the leader will experience more of life in the pew during the Sabbatical, and the lay leadership will come to a greater understating of how the congregation's ministry is renewed, revitalized, and stimulated; an opportunity for learning new ideas to enhance their ministry

Suggested Sabbatical Guidelines

A Sabbatical is encouraged for ministers of the Allegheny Synod after 5-7 years of service in the same setting, beginning after three years of First Call Theological Education.

The length of Sabbatical is encouraged to be a minimum of 3 months, though each Sabbatical may vary in length, depending on the covenant agreed upon by the congregation's council and the minister. It is strongly encouraged that the entire Sabbatical be taken continuously to allow for disengagement from pastoral responsibilities and duties.

Sabbatical time is not considered vacation time or continuing education time for the minister but a separate experience of renewal for continued ministry.

Planning for a Sabbatical can begin anytime. When possible, it is suggested that the discussion begin early in a ministry.

Final preparations are encouraged at least 6 months to a year in advance, including the writing of a covenant, which provides full compensation and benefits for the minister and outlines the vision and practical details of the Sabbatical.

A covenant designed by the congregation's council, or its designated representatives, and the minister is encouraged. The congregation's leadership usually does the final affirmation of the covenant. The time of planning of Sabbatical should focus on the vision and hopes for the Sabbatical time as well as practical arrangements regarding pastoral coverage and financial considerations for the congregation. Conversation with the synod can help facilitate this planning and implementation so that it is intentional and mutually beneficial for both the congregation and the minister.

As Sabbatical coverage for a congregation is discussed, there are resources within the synod to help in planning for pastoral coverage. Possibilities for Sundays include utilizing the gifts of retired pastors, worship led by authorized lay leaders of the synod, youth led worship services, hymn sings, etc. Coverage for pastoral care may be arranged in a variety of ways, including support from area pastors.

It is expected that a minister will return to their call from the congregation after their Sabbatical. It is suggested that in the Sabbatical covenant this expectation is discerned between the congregation council and the minister, with at least one to two years of continued service after the Sabbatical being the norm.

Upon return from Sabbatical, the minister is encouraged to provide a reflection or report to the congregation about the Sabbatical experience. This can be flexible and creative in its form, yet, provide an opportunity for congregation and minister to learn from and explore the benefits of the Sabbatical time.

Synod Hunger Team - Advocacy Committee:

The Allegheny Synod has identified food insecurity as a major problem in our synod. Feeding our neighbors is one of the most common outreach ministries we offer as Christ's people. It is a ministry which comes naturally in many respects; we identify so readily with the need and with the value of being fed and sharing in a meal. Our hearts break at stories and pictures of people with no food. We may have personal experience of not having enough food and want to help others in need. In sharing food, we not only meet a physical need for the body, but we feed spirits and create community.

One of the programs of the ELCA is a World Hunger Network. This ministry is a resource to synods, congregations, and individuals concerned with responding to the cry, "when I was hungry, you gave me food." To connect with this churchwide effort and, more importantly, to be strengthened across this synod in our efforts, we have launched the Allegheny Synod Hunger Team.

The Hunger Team will have several areas of concern:

- Provide a roundtable for those involved in feeding ministries to share stories, struggles, and strategies.
- Raise awareness and offer education in the synod on hunger issues and action as people of faith.
- Encourage discussion and advocacy on issues related to hunger and access to food.

The Hunger Team is open to anyone who feels called to work with us in any or all of these areas. If you would like to join the Hunger Team, email the synod DEM, Sue Ellen Spotts, (sueellen.spotts@elca.org) to be included in Hunger Team communications. Watch Facebook and the Allegheny Synod website for announcement of the next meeting of the Allegheny Synod Hunger Team.
